On returning from a brief trip out of the city, I find my desk decorated again with a box of my favorite brand, for which I thank you wary much.

Pearse Cabell has told me of the many courtesies you extended to him and to his group on his recent visit, and while I am sure you will be hearing from his, I want you to know that I personally appreciate all that you did.

I hope we will be seeing you soon.

Patterbly,
